Proprium Capital Partners launches Japanese Multi-family Venture

Hong Kong, June 2023 - Proprium Capital Partners today announces that it has entered into definitive agreements to establish a multi-family property investment venture with Proprium Capital Partners (“Proprium”), Manulife Investment Management (“Manulife”) and Mubadala Investment Company (“Mubadala”). The venture will partner with Samurai Capital (“Samurai”), a leading asset manager with significant experience in managing multi-family assets in Japan, and intends to assemble a portfolio worth up to JPY 80 billion (approximately US$ 600 million).

The joint venture was seeded with existing rental multi-family properties in Japan and will seek to acquire additional assets. Targeting urban dwellers in Tokyo and Osaka, the seed assets are high-quality stabilized properties with convenient access to railway stations and nearby neighborhood amenities.

Sustainability will form a core focus of the venture, from the construction stage through to tenant engagement schemes to reduce the carbon footprint of the properties. The objective of the partnership is to acquire assets that deliver affordable and high-quality living spaces for tenants and attractive and sustainable returns for shareholders.

The establishment of the venture reflects the confidence of Proprium and its partners in the resilient nature and strong growth potential of Japan’s multi-family property sector.

Thomas Wong, Partner of Proprium Capital Partners, commented: “We are excited to partner with two highly respected institutions to extend our global living strategy from Europe, Australia and China to Japan. We believe that these properties will outperform the market and generate positive returns for our investors. Through the collaboration between Proprium and our co-investors, we look forward to scaling up in the Japan multifamily sector.”

Kenneth Tsang, Senior Managing Director & Head of Real Estate Asset Management, Asia for Manulife Investment Management, said: “Our investment in this venture provides us with a further footprint in Japan and the multi-family sector which remains our favorable asset class globally. We believe the partnership will help us accelerate our growth plans and strengthen our competitive market position not only in Japan but also globally.”

Matthias Neuling, Head of Asia & DACH Real Estate for Mubadala, added: “Mubadala takes pride in investments which unlock value for stakeholders and benefit communities. Japan’s multi-family property sector has proven to be resilient and stable, offering attractive risk-adjusted returns with significant future growth potential. Japan is a key strategic market for Mubadala, and we look forward to working with our partners to create long-term value and deliver sustainable high-quality living spaces for communities across the country.”

Ken Aoyama, President & CEO of Samurai Capital, said: “We are excited to work with leading global firms to invest into the Japanese multifamily sector and are pleased to provide our capability, experience, and network in the Japanese residential sector for the fund’s success.”
